

As the Fourth of July draws near in the U.S.A., our newest Featured Journeys: All-American Patriotic Road Trip takes us on a multi-stop adventure to experience historic and iconic sites along the country's east coast.

Our journey begins in Boston. Founded in the 1600s, this historic city is home to the 2.5-mile Freedom Trail, where visitors walk through history exploring 16 authentic sites. Along with discovering the city where the American Revolution began, travelers can go whale watching, take in a game at Fenway Park, and explore the flavors of clam chowder, Boston Cream Pie, Boston Baked Beans, and more.
