

The fall harvest season has arrived and this Featured Journey: Luxury Vineyard Tour Through France highlights some of the finest vineyard hotels in France. Our journey begins in the Champagne Region, then continues on to the Loire Valley, Bordeaux, and Burgundy Wine Regions. Idyllic in their own right, yet can be perfectly paired for a grand tour.

Domaine Des Hauts De Loire

LOIRE VALLEY

Following the path of the Loire River, this area in northwest France is famous for white wines, and divided into three regions: Upper, Central, and Pays Nantais where Muscadet wine originates.

Loire Valley Hotels

Chateau des Vigiers

BORDEAUX

Known for fine reds, this region along the country's southern Atlantic Coast is known for historic wine estates called chateaux, which produce some of the most sought after red wines in the world.

Bordeaux Hotels

Chateau De Gilly

BURGUNDY

Situated in eastern France, the Burgundy Region is renowned for red wines. The region consists of five fragmented districts: Chablis, Côte d'Or, Côte Chalonnaise, Mâconnais, and Beaujolais.
